Music You Love. Musicians You Know.
Valley Symphony Association Kicks Off 53rd Season Concert Series
at the Pavilion with Family-Friendly
“LAUGH! Saturday Morning Soundtracks”

Montrose, CO – The Valley Symphony Association (VSA) is excited to launch its 53rd season with a series of fun fall concerts, “LAUGH! Saturday Morning Soundtracks.” These performances, featuring beloved themes from classic cartoons to iconic video games, promise a delightful experience for audiences of all ages. The concerts will be held at the Montrose Pavilion on Saturday, October 26 at 7 PM, and Sunday, October 27 at 3 PM.

Generous support for the entire season comes from Cimarron Wealth Management and the David Mize Family, with LAUGH! concert partners Montrose Emergency Physicians joining in celebrating the joy of music and laughter.

“Music truly is the best medicine, and we’re thrilled to have Montrose Emergency Physicians on board as concert partners for our LAUGH! concerts,” VSA Communications and Development Director Stacey Ryan said.

This season, themed PLAY!, marks the beginning of the second year for Artistic Director and Orchestra Conductor Troy Raper, who shares his enthusiasm: “Music is my ultimate form of play, and this season, we want to spread that joy and creativity with our audience. The music of television and video games stands strong as a powerful art form on its own, even without the visuals.”

Ryan adds, “Our concerts offer something for everyone—not just classical enthusiasts. Whether it’s the nostalgia of Saturday morning cartoons or the thrill of video game soundtracks, these performances are designed for everyone to enjoy.”

To make the season more accessible, VSA is offering incentivized pricing: a season pass with a “Buy Four, Get One Free” option, priced at $80 for adults, $20 for students, and a family package at $200 (two adults and two students). Single concert tickets are available at $20 for adults and $5 for students.

Since its founding in 1970, VSA has fostered community through live musical experiences, uniting musicians and audiences from across the Uncompahgre, Grand, Gunnison, and North Fork Valleys. The all-volunteer organization is known for its diverse, passionate performers of all ages.
